WOVEN-TO-SIZE GRASSWEAVE

LE1310 Trestle - Railay

Family room Windows were left without casings and draperies, allowing uninterrupted views of outdoor areas. Kitchen The kitchen accommodates two islands—one warm vanilla and the other a contrasting walnut. Pantry Loden green moldings around the window pop in a touch of color. Breakfast area A wood-clad pitched ceiling draws attention to the breakfast room. Floral droopery panels, an iron-and-crystal chandelier, and bleached-wood furnishings lift the lightness of the space. Office Walnut paneling establishes masculinity in Bruce's office. A tufted leather sofa framed by modern paisley window panels offers a handsome place to sit.
