RENO HOME

NATURAL WINDOW COVERINGS
Miyabi is the ancient Japanese concept of elegance, awareness and simplicity, and this new Kotta Weave textile by Hartmann & Forbes is inspired by that concept. Since 2006, H&F has been collecting used products from clients for recycling/reuse/donation in conjunction with the ReBuilding Center of Portland, Ore. Cheryl Chenault Interiors, Inc., 4790 Caughlin Parkway, 747-0898.

MIRROR
Did your grandmother have a mirror like this? If not, don't worry, you can find this ornate vintage mirror, along with other (locally) reclaimed collectibles at the Nest! Featuring furniture, décor, and "other stuff they like." $325. The Nest, 6135 Lakeside Drive, 284-8841.
