NATURAL INSTINCT

HARTMANN & FORBES has teamed up with designer LISA KANNING on a new collection of three woven-to-size grassweave window coverings and four wallcoverings. Inspired by natural shapes and forms and her roots in rural Montana, Kanning's collection effortlessly layers varied textures and natural materials creating textural depth to the designs. Available through Ernest Gaspard & Associates; hartmannforbes.com

OF NOTE

Legendary French fabric house PIERRE FREY has opened a dazzling new showroom on the third floor of ADAC that showcases its exquisite and eclectic array of textiles, wallpapers, custom-made rugs and furniture. pierrefrey.com • In Ansley Mall, the opening of ODD MCLEAN adds a colorful and joyful note to the shopping center. Stylish gifts, home accessories, candles, jewelry and entertaining essentials comprise the shop's wide-ranging collection, which is curated by owner Kwynn Everest (who named the shop after her grandfather, Odd McLean Stephens). oddmclean.com • Looking for fresh towels? WEEZIE has a new flagship showroom in Andrews Square. The company works with a third-generation family-owned factory in Portugal to create terry from 100 percent organic long-staple cotton. While you're there, you can also have it personalized with embroidery. Can't visit in person? Check out their blog, "The Soapbox." weezietowels.com • MERGE HOME, in West Midtown, is the brainchild of Marty Mason, who you might know from his Savvy Snoot and Collected Home stores. The new three-story home-furnishings showroom features forward-looking designs in a mix of styles. Full-service design consultations are also available. mergehome.com • New York-based furniture maker BURROW has opened its first brick-and-mortar location in the South in Westside Provisions District. The company is best known for its curated selection of modular furniture that features tool-free assembly (and comes with free shipping). The light and airy showroom showcases their range of sofas, chairs and other upholstery, as well as numerous swatch options. burrows.com
